

Never-Ending-Blues:

(Verse)

I woke up this morning, feeling low and blue,
I woke up this morning, feeling low and blue,
Got the blues in my heart, don't know what to do.

(Chorus)

Oh, the blues, the blues, they're haunting me,
Oh, the blues, the blues, they're haunting me,
I'll play this guitar, set my spirit free.

Late at night, the moon shines bright,
Late at night, the moon shines bright,
Got the blues in my soul, can't sleep at night.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, these blues, won't let me be,
Oh, these blues, these blues, won't let me be,
I'll sing my sorrow, till the morning sets me free.

(Verse)

Woke up this morning, sun shining bright,
Woke up this morning, sun shining bright,
But my baby's gone, and I'm filled with a lonesome light.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they're tearing me apart,
Oh, these blues, they're tearing me apart,
I'll play this old guitar, to mend my broken heart.

(Verse)

Down the road, I'm walking slow,
Down the road, I'm walking slow,
Got the blues in my steps, feeling all alone.

(Chorus)

Oh, the blues, the blues, they're on my mind,
Oh, the blues, the blues, they're on my mind,
I'll sing my heart out, and leave my blues behind.

(Verse)

Under the stars, I'm strumming my guitar,
Under the stars, I'm strumming my guitar,
The blues in my soul, they're taking me far.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they won't let me go,
Oh, these blues, they won't let me go,
I'll sing my heart out, and let the music flow.

(Verse)

Walking down the road, feeling so low,
Walking down the road, feeling so low,
Got the blues in my soul, nowhere to go.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they're all around,
Oh, these blues, they're all around,
I'll sing my heart out, let the music rebound.

(Verse)

Late at night, the city lights shine bright,
Late at night, the city lights shine bright,
But I'm feeling so blue, lost in the night.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they won't let me be,
Oh, these blues, they won't let me be,
I'll play this old guitar, set my emotions free.

(Verse)

Sittin' by the river, watchin' the waves,
Sittin' by the river, watchin' the waves,
The blues in my heart, like a storm that never behaves.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they're haunting me,
Oh, these blues, they're haunting me,
I'll sing my story, set my spirit free.

(Verse)

In the midnight hour, I hear the train's cry,
In the midnight hour, I hear the train's cry,
Feeling so alone, as the days go by.

(Chorus)

Oh, these blues, they won't let me sleep,
Oh, these blues, they won't let me sleep,
I'll play my guitar, my soul to keep.
